Cheque Facility Terms and Conditions

INFORMATION ABOUT THE MUTUAL BANKING CODE OF PRACTICE

The relevant provisions of the Mutual Banking Code of Practice apply to Police Credit Union as the product issuer (the "Credit Union") product or service.

1. When the Credit Union accepts this application you, the Member, acknowledge that you have appointed both the Credit Union and the Credit Union Services Corporation (Australia) Limited ("Cuscal") as your agent and that you have authorised each of them to:
 - (a) conduct accounts ("the Bank Account") with a Bank ("the Bank") to enable you to draw cheques for payment of goods and services out of the funds in your Credit Union Account in accordance with these Terms and Conditions; and
 - (b) transfer funds to the Bank Account from your Credit Union Account to pay the amount of cheques that you or your Authorised Signatories have signed and to pay the value of all costs taxes or charges made by the Credit Union or the Bank.
2. It is your responsibility to safeguard your cheque book from loss, theft or unauthorised use. You must:
 - (a) keep your cheque book under secure control and in a safe place at all times;
 - (b) never give your cheque book or an incomplete cheque to any person;
 - (c) read your periodic statement carefully and notify the Credit Union promptly if it contains any entry which you suspect may represent an unauthorised transaction; and
 - (d) contact us immediately if you become aware that your cheque book or a cheque has been lost, stolen or used without your authority.
3. When you write a cheque you have a duty to fill it out carefully so that no one else can alter it. You must:

- (a) write the amount in both words and figures and never leave a gap between the words or figures;
 - (b) begin the amount in words as close to the left hand side of the cheque as possible and write the amount in figures as close as possible to the dollar ($) sign;
 - (c) always write cheques in ink which cannot be rubbed out and never in pencil; and
 - (d) never sign a cheque until you have filled it out completely.
4. You will be liable for all losses caused by your failure to observe the duties specified in clauses 1 and 2 above. However in no case will you be liable where it is shown, on the balance of probabilities, that the loss was caused by:
- (a) the fraudulent or negligent conduct of your Credit Union's employees or agents; or
 - (b) the same cheque being debited more than once to the same account.
5. If the amount of any cheque presented for payment to the Bank exceeds the Available Balance (as defined in 6 below) in your Credit Union Account at the time the cheque is presented, your Credit Union may instruct the Bank to refuse to pay the cheque. If that occurs your Credit Union will advise you in writing, by ordinary prepaid post, as soon as practicable, but will not be liable for any losses caused by its failure to do so. Where your Credit Union refuses to pay a cheque in accordance with this condition, or in accordance with any other provision, your Credit Union may, at its absolute discretion, debit to your Credit Union Account any costs incurred through such refusal, and such costs shall constitute a debt owed by you to your Credit Union.
6. The "Available Balance" includes any funds lodged in your Credit Union Account, any unused overdraft or other agreed credit facility made available for your Credit Union Account. The Available Balance does not include:

- (a) deposits received but uncleared in accordance with the policy of your Credit Union;
 - (b) interest accrued but not credited; or
 - (c) deposits in transit.
7. If your Credit Union Account is held in the name of two or more persons, all funds in that account and the Bank Account will be held in joint tenancy. If one of you dies, any balance in these accounts shall accrue in accordance with the law of survivorship in the State of incorporation of your Credit Union.
8. You acknowledge and agree that your Credit Union is only required to instruct the Bank to stop payment on any cheque when your Credit Union standard stop payment notice has been correctly completed, signed and delivered to your Credit Union.
9. In the event that a correctly authorised and presented cheque exceeds the Available Balance of your Credit Union Account, your Credit Union is authorised (but is under no obligation) to transfer to that account from any other account or accounts that you have with your Credit Union sufficient funds to allow payment of the cheque. Your Credit Union may charge you a fee when it makes such a transfer and, if it does, the fee will constitute a debt owed by you to your Credit Union. You acknowledge that your Credit Union will not be liable for any claim made by you should your Credit Union fail or refuse to make such a transfer.
10. If your Credit Union pays a correctly authorised and presented cheque that exceeds your Available Balance then you will incur a debt to your Credit Union reflecting the amount by which the cheque exceeds the Available Balance. This debt is repayable by you immediately upon the written demand of the Credit Union. If you fail to repay the debt then you will be required to pay all costs and expenses incurred by the Credit Union in collection of that debt.

11. If you have a complaint about the Cheque Facility, or wish to dispute a transaction, you should contact your Credit Union. The Credit Union staff will do everything they can to resolve your complaint immediately and to your satisfaction.

If it is not possible to settle your concern immediately, or you are not satisfied with the result, you may request that the decision be reviewed by senior management. An officer with the appropriate authority will investigate your complaint thoroughly.

If you are still not satisfied with the decision, and you wish to take it further, you may, for instance, contact the Financial Ombudsman Service Limited (FOS). Contact details are:
